For three years, from March 3, 2017, to December 14, 2019, ALABAMA celebrates the people, places, and stories that make the state unique. In a 1,000-word essay, celebrate a person, place, or story that highlights Alabama history using these guidelines: (double space, 12 point font)

- Edwin C. Bridges' new book, Alabama: The Making of an American State (2016: The University of Alabama Press), was written to celebrate the bicentennial of our state. The book is divided into several "eras." Select an era and write about one episode in that era or a person featured in the chapter.
- For this Bicentennial year of 2019, consider:
In your opinion, what is the most significant event in the 200-year-history of Alabama statehood? Why?

- Research and write about one or more of Alabama's state capitals, using current resources (e.g., Lost Capitals of Alabama by Herbert James Lewis or a similar book)

I give my permission to publish excerpts of my essay and photograph on the HHS Web site and/or Facebook page, newsletter, and/or local publications.
